CITY NOTES.

Gentlemen's Driving Club races Saturday, 2 p. m.

The sale of seats for Corinne commences this morning at the Academy of Music office.

Regular meeting of the board of managers of the Home for the Friendless at 9:30 this morning.

William M. Slingerly, Democratic candidate for governor, will speak in this city on a date near the end of the month. The exact time has not yet been decided.

The county commissioners yesterday awarded the contract to the Economy Steam Heat company of heating the court house. The price is $1,148 a year.

Judge Edwards presided over naturalization court in the arbitration room yesterday and granted papers to upwards of 200 applicants. It was the busiest day in its line this term.

Major Everett Warren, president of the Republican State League, will attend the inauguration and the opening of the new sewer line at the intersection of South Main street, Wilkes-Barre, tonight.

Edward Hogan died Wednesday night at the home of his brother, John Hogan, on South Garfield avenue, where he came on a visit Saturday last. Deceased was a resident of Dunno, Susquehanna county, and was 23 years of age. The funeral notice will appear later.

Marriage licenses were granted yesterday by the clerk of the courts to Walter G. Wheeler and Susie Smith, of Elmhurst; Aaron Sampson and Ida Weichel, of Boaring Brook township; Charles A. Koerner, of Scranton, and Kate Shalter, of Mountain Top, Monroe county.

Places in the Chautauque circle, and in dress cutting, embroidery, mending, plain sewing and buttonhole making can be secured by applying today and tonight at Young Women's Christian association. Terms—Chart cutting, including chart, $5; other classes, 60 cents, in addition to membership fee $1 for one year.

The Epworth union, of Scranton and vicinity, will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening at the Providence Methodist Episcopal church. At this time will occur the annual election of officers, after which the chapter in connection with the Providence church will render a very fine musical and literary programme.

Tuesday, Oct. 9, will be the last day for filing certificates of nomination in this county, and Oct. 16 will be the last for filing nomination papers. The county tickets of the Republican, Democratic, People's and Prohibition parties have already been filed and also the nomination papers of William T. Jenkins, as independent candidate for sheriff.

An important decision has been made with regard to the carpentry class of the Young men's Christian association. Twelve twenty-five applications for membership received by Oct. 15, the class will not be proceeded with, as a lesser number of pupils would not justify the great expense of preparing for bench work. Secretary Maly has arranged elementary classes for progressive Bible on Saturday nights from 8 to 9 p. m., with a view of bringing together the young converts of the mission services. About sixty members will attend the opening meeting.

The ladies of all denominations who are at all interested in foreign missions will be highly favored next Sunday in the presence in this city of Mrs. Wellington White an eloquent missionary who spent ten years in China. Mrs. White will speak at the Providence Presbyterian church Sabbath morning to ladies only and in the evening to a mixed congregation. She is an intensely interesting platform speaker as many can testify who heard her last spring at the convention in the Second Presbyterian church. Ladies of all denominations are cordially invited to hear her Sunday morning.

WE WANTED TO KNOW

Railways Committee of Select Council Questioned.

MR. ROSS CARRIED HIS POINT

The Session of Select Council Voted to Recommit an Ordinance Reported Favorably—Engineer Larue's Request for More Time on the Bridge Plans Is Granted—Franklin Avenue Paving Measure Passes Third Reading.

An insinuation and almost an open charge of irregularity in the railways committee was made in the meeting of select council last night. Mr. Manley, of the committee, reported favorably on an ordinance permitting the Scranton North End Railway company to lay a single track trolley line along Penn avenue, from Delaware street to Washington avenue, to Olyphant road to the city line; also on Columbus avenue, from Washington avenue to the boulevard. Mr. Ross, a member of the committee, objected to even a presentation of the ordinance on the grounds that he had not been notified of any meeting of the railway committee.

Mr. Manley replied that Mr. Williams, the chairman, and Members Kellow and Clark favored the ordinance and so signified before the session of council was opened. In reply to a question by President Chittenden Mr. Manley said that the committee did not meet formally but that each member had been told by him that the ordinance would be presented; that in view of no objections, he reported it favorably. Mr. Wagner's motion that the ordinance be recommitted was amended by Mr. Kellow that it be reported forthwith. Mr. Wagner and Mr. Thomas opposed the amendment which was lost and the original motion prevailed.

Lemuel Ammerman, Lieutenant Governor Robert C. Adams are directors of the company, which has franchises through Winton, Olyphant, Dickson City, and Throop, and is reported to have an agreement with the Scranton Traction company to use its Green Ridge People's line to Lackawanna avenue. They also propose to connect their Abington road into the city over the Traction company's Providence line.

BIDS FOR SEWERS RECEIVED.

The following bids were opened for the building of the main sewer in the Thirteenth ward Fourteenth sewer district, and referred to the sewers and drains committee in conjunction with the city engineer, the bids being per lineal foot: Muldoon & Bowe, $1.07; P. J. Moran & Co., $1.07; Howley Bros., $2.33; Dunn Bros., $1.73; P. H. O'Hara, $1.39; Flanagan & O'Hara, $1.44; Dunn Bros., complete, $3.90; Ferguson & Rooney, complete, $3.49.

Bids for furnishing coal to the fire company houses were opened and referred to the fire department committee.

The paving committee recommended that the bid of Nicholas & Fahy, for paving and curbing West Lackawanna avenue from Ninth street be accepted at the following prices: Grading and paving, $1.99 per square yard; curbing, 40 cents per foot; square curbing, 90 cents per foot. Mr. Roche precipitated a discussion by alleging that a lower bid on the paving had been submitted by Dunn Bros. He moved that this report be referred back to the committee with instructions to make separate awards. The motion was carried and the recommendation of the committee adopted.

An ordinance providing for the transfer of $1,000 from the appropriations for approaches to the Swetland street bridge for the ground rent of Nay Ag park went to committee under the protest of Mr. McCanna, of the Fourteenth.

FOR PAVING FRANKLIN AVENUE.

The ordinances providing for the paving of Franklin avenue with vitrified brick at $3.45 per square yard from Spruce to Mulberry street, and providing for sidewalks on Madison and Monroe avenues between Gibson and Myrtle streets, passed third readings.

Engineer Larue, who was employed to examine the plans for the proposed bridge, reported that they are not perfect as yet, and suggested that they be put in such perfect and definite form before being advertised as to be explicitly understood by bidders and to require no modifications afterwards.

ROSEDALE REVIVAL.

The Favorite Wallace Melodrama Well Presented at the Academy.

That the taste of our fathers, in matters theatrical, was more robust, if not more intellectual, than that of their distinguished sons is proved, among other things, by the favor our fathers vouchsafed to the sterling melodrama of Lester Wallace, of which "Rosedale" was one of the most popular. "Rosedale," as revived by that accomplished actor, Joseph S. Haworth, and associates at the Academy of Music last evening, before a pleased audience, had something of the charm of an old painting, and bore something of an old painting's worth in its own dimness.

Each of the players was adequate. The collective talent was perhaps as large as any Wallace ever massed together at one time. With the veteran M. A. Kennedy as Bunberry Kobb, Charles Abbott as Miles McKenna, Charles B. Hanford as Matthew Leight, Mrs. E. A. Eberle as Tabitha Stork, Miss Maud Haslam as Lady Florence May and Miss Marie Drotfnah in the eccentric role of Sarah Sykes, those parts in the play which give opportunity for discriminating acting, in addition to the central role of Elliot Gray to which of course Mr. Haworth did finished justice, were each and all well apportioned. The missing essential was the spontaneous and whole-hearted interest which our fathers used to take in the vigorous and melodramatic Wallace school. We look and smile where they looked and alternately thrilled, shuddered and wept.

Nevertheless, there was a reminiscence of the old flavor to this revival of "Rosedale" which, if not explosively enjoyed, was not without equal sincerity, and it is a cause of regret that the partakers of this mimetic treat were not more numerous.

CHANGE SUGGESTED.

Architects Little & O'Connor Meet High School Committee.

An important change has been made in the kind of stone to be used in the lower wall of the new high school building. Mr. Little, of Little & O'Connor, the New York architects, was in the city yesterday and was in conference with Conrad Schroeder, the contractor, and attended a meeting of the high school committee of the board of control.

At the meeting there were present Members Langstaff, von Storch, Worrener, Jennings, Walsh and Phillips, Architect Little, Contractor Schroeder and sub-contractor Carlneel.

The original specifications had provided that Ohio sandstone be used in constructing the basement wall. Mr. Schroeder suggested to the committee that Indiana limestone be substituted. This is the same stone used in the Albright library, and costs, ordinarily, 15 cents more per foot than the Ohio product, which, it is claimed, does not retain its color and does not cut up properly into small blocks, which in the new building will have but a 17-inch face.

Mr. Schroeder explained that the substitution to the Indiana stone, although it is more valuable than the sandstone, would not entail increased cost or alter the contract price, because instead of a block face it can be put in with a picked face, and will present a handsome appearance than the stone originally specified.

Mr. Little assured the committee that the substitution would be advantageous and the committee decided to recommend the matter to the board.

WEDDED AT ST. LUKE'S.

Ceremony that United Miss Penpacker and Mr. von Storch.

On of the most fashionable and largely attended weddings of the season was that of Miss Jessie Penpacker, daughter of Mrs. J. E. Penpacker, of Terrace road, to Attorney W. G. von Storch, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The church was completely filled with guests and friends of the bridal couple, who were made man and wife, by Rev. Rogers Israel, the rector.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss May Penpacker, the maid of honor and the following bridesmaids: Miss Louise Shotwell, of Gloversville, N. Y.; Miss Gessie Smith, of New Milford, Pa.; and Miss May Kingsbury and Miss Ruth Jackson, of this city. Mr. von Storch was accompanied by his best friend, Sidney R. Miller, of Wilkes-Barre. The following usher completed the bridal party: W. W. Winkler, of Punxsutawney; Dr. Carmalt, of New York city; Horace Hasbrouck, of Poughkeepsie, and George W. S. Fuller, of Scranton.

Professor J. Willis Conant presided at the organ, and in addition to the entré and finale marches, rendered an attractive prelude.

Following the ceremony a delightful reception was given by the bride's mother at her residence. At 6 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. von Storch departed on an extended tour which will include many of the principal cities in the east and south. The bride is one of the most accomplished members of the city's younger social element. Mr. von Storch is a member of the Lackawanna county bar and one of the best known young financial men in Scranton.

JAMES BOYS SHUT OUT.

The Morning Glories of Dunmore Are Champions of the County.

The last amateur baseball game of the season to determine the championship of Lackawanna county was played at the base ball park yesterday afternoon between the Morning Glories, of Dunmore, and the James Boys, of Pine Brook. The latter were shut out without a run, and the championship was accordingly won by the Morning Glories. The score was 2 to 0.

Cawley and Finerty was the battery for the Dunmore team, and Nolan and McLarky covered the points for the James Boys. It was a pitchers battle and the honors were even. Each club secured one run in the first inning. Owen Walsh was put out on a fly to first. Cuff was hit by the pitcher, went to second on a passed ball and scored on Finerty's two-bagger. The latter went to third on another passed ball but was caught napping. A base on balls and an out on strikes finished the inning.

In the next inning another run was scored by the Dunmore club through the errors of their opponents.

Following is the synopsis of the game: Morning Glories.....0 0 0 0 1 1 0 0-2 James Boys.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

Hits, Morning Glories, 5; James Boys, 2. Errors, Morning Glories, 1; James Boys, 3. Batteries, Cawley and Finerty, Nolan and Finerty. Umpire, Daniel G. Gelbert.

BATTERED HIM BADLY.

Wolf Johnson and Wife Lay Violent Hands on Louis Koeliski.

On Tuesday night Louis Koeliski and two friends went into the bar of Wolf Johnson's Russian restaurant on Penn avenue and ordered drinks, which were served.

Koeliski accused Mr. Johnson of not giving him sufficient change and demanded money or blood. In the quarrel which ensued, and in which Mrs. Johnson came to the assistance of her husband, Koeliski was recklessly handled and his face suffered from the fists of the Johnsons.

He proceeeded a warrant before ruffian Fitzsimmons and the defendants appeared before the magistrate of the Eighth ward, waived a hearing and entered bail in the sum of $300 each to appear at court.

AT DAVIS THEATER.

Fine Show That Has Been Put on for Last Half of Week.

Manager Davis has made an excellent change for the rest of the week at his Linden street theater and has a splendid 'draw' in Willie and Thorne's novelty artists. The programme opens with the comedy sketch, "The Snappers," which is brimful of fun and is followed by Miss Marie Griffiths, a pretty and clever young lady, who displays the intricacies of the calisthenic art and was twice encored.

Val Vico, the prince of jugglers, had many new tricks and the musical comedians, Barton and Cameron, had a most novel display of musical instruments hidden everywhere. Electricity forms an important factor in their act and their performance is one which calls forth continual laughter. The leading item however, is the marionettes show and the manner in which poor Punch was abused by the kicking donkey, called for a repetition of the scene. The whole performance is a great credit to Manager Davis.

WHO OWNS CULM PILE

That is the Question a Jury Will Be Asked to Decide Today.

LA BAR SAYS HE IS THE OWNER

The Greenwood Coal Company is Equally as Confident That He is Not—Ruddy Ejectment Case Given to the Jury—Action to Recover a Mechanics' Lien on Trial Before Judge Searle.

The value of the culm heaps with which the Lackawanna valley is dotted from one end to the other is exemplified by the suit which was tried in the main court room before Judge Gunster yesterday, in which Isaac La Bar is the plaintiff and the Greenwood Coal company the defendant. The case was called Wednesday afternoon and a portion of the testimony for the plaintiff heard. While the action appears on the record as one of trespass to recover damages for about 5,000 tons of culm claimed by Mr. La Bar which was used by the Greenwood Coal company, it is in reality an action to determine who is the owner of the culm.

In 1890 Mr. La Bar bargained with the trustees of the Lackawanna and Susquehanna Coal company for the purchase of a culm heap located near Moose, and some time later he gave his check for $500 to a third party to be given to the trustees for pay for this culm heap. In the meantime it is alleged that the trustees discovered that two years before they had leased the land on which the culm pile was located to the Greenwood Coal company and that the culm went with the land.

CHECK NOT ACCEPTED.

Mr. La Bar's check was not accepted but he refused to withdraw it holding that the tender of it completed the sale of the culm to him. On the part of the defendant company it is maintained that it became the owner of the culm two years before the sale to Mr. La Bar; that there never was any sale made by the trustees to Mr. La Bar and that there could not be as the trustees did not pass on the check.

Major Everett Warren argued the case of the defendant to the jury and Mr. Price was making his closing plea when the hour of adjournment arrived. He will resume this morning.

The greater part of yesterday was consumed in court room No. 2, with the closing testimony and arguments in the ejectment case of Martha B. Phelps against Cornelius Ruddy. At 3 o'clock the case was given to the jury, but it did not return with a verdict while court was in session.

The jury in the case of Thomas Davis against D. F. Hearsey, who agreed Wednesday night at 8:30 to return a verdict yesterday morning of $37.33 in favor of the plaintiff.

ACTION ON MECHANIC'S LIEN.

Before Judge Searle, in No. 2, when court adjourned suit to recover $954.52 on a mechanic's lien, in which C. M. Putnam is plaintiff and J. A. Barron defendant, was on trial.

The latter is represented by ex-Judge W. H. Stanton and the plaintiff by Attorney E. C. Newcomb.
